

Instructor: Date:

Learner: Regional Branch:

Program: Center:

CONTENT

• Let's Start! • Let's Explore! • Let's Practice! • Extension Activity • Target Words • Learning Points

Let's Start!

We're going out on the town! We have to dress up!

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about social activities.
- I can ask for help or advice.
- I can write about what is advisable.

Ask your partner:

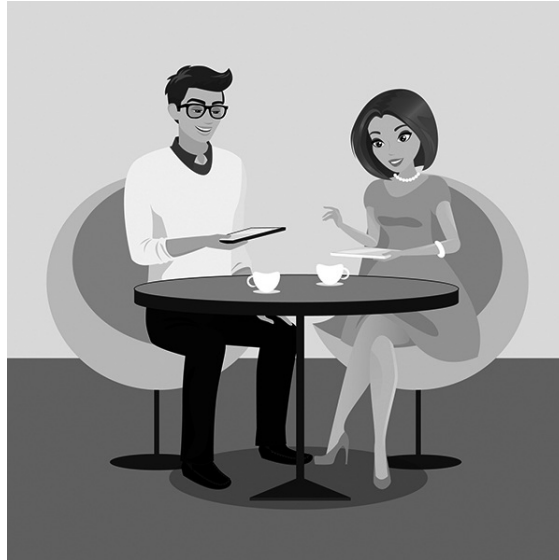

- Do you like to dress up? Why or why not?
- When do you have to dress up? What do you wear?

Let's Explore!

Julia works as a server at Bistro 88. She has a different view of Vanessa ...

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Julia: Hi Frank!
- Frank: Hi Julia! What do you think about your new job as a server at Bistro 88?
- Julia: It's OK, I'm just not sure if I'm going to get along with the manager. It's this woman named Vanessa.
- Frank: Could you explain to me what the problem is?
- Julia: Yes, she's very controlling. She is always watching what I do and telling me how to do things differently.
- Frank: Well, she's your boss, so it would be a good idea to listen to her.
- Julia: I understand, but I don't need to be supervised like that.
- Frank: You ought to have a conversation with her.
- Julia: She seems pretty set in her ways. What did you do last night?
- Frank: I asked Margaret out on a date. We had a pretty late night. We went out until about 2:00 a.m. We tried out a new club called Angelo's. They had some live music playing.
- Julia: That's so cool! Could you tell me where that club is? I'd like to check it out.
- Frank: It's on the corner of Sandals and John street. You ought to come out with us next time. I'm sure that would cheer you up!
- Julia: I would love to! Do you have to dress up to go there?
- Frank: No, that's not necessary.
- Julia: Perfect! I'm in.

Let's Practice!

Julia and Frank use informal language to talk about going out on the town.

* "going out on the town" means visiting several different places when you go out at night with people.

Instructions: Match the phrasal verbs with the definitions.

COLUMN A

1. to check out
2. to ask out
3. to get along
4. to try out
5. to cheer up
6. to come out

COLUMN B

- a. to have a good relationship with a person
- b. to invite a person to an activity with a romantic intention
- c. to experiment with something new
- d. to experience something new
- e. to join other people at a social activity
- f. to feel better (mood or humor)

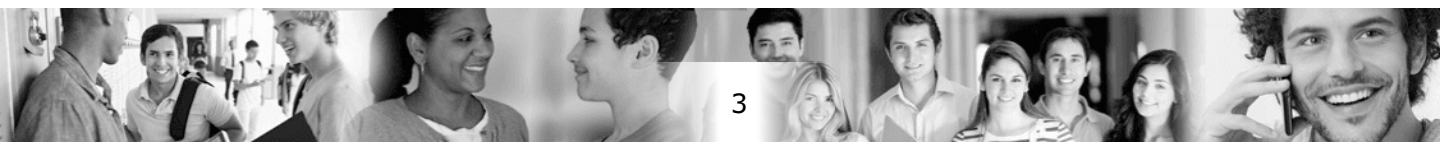

Let's Practice!

Frank thinks it would be a good idea* for Julia to listen to her boss, Vanessa. Do you agree?

* "it would be a good idea": This is a way of saying what is advisable like You ought to..., You might want to... or You should ...

Instructions: Proofread the sentences. Correct the mistakes. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. She's your boss, so it good idea to listen to her.
2. You ought come out with us next time.
3. You need try to impress the new management.
4. I could to learn new skills in the restaurant.
5. You might wants to change roles in the near future.

Extension Activity

Write a "Night on the Town" column for a blog or a newspaper.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- With a partner, discuss different things you can do in the evening where you live, such as seeing live music, going to a play, etc.
- Write an article for a blog or a newspaper telling people what they can do in the evening. This is called a "Night on the Town" column.
- Give at least 5 suggestions of activities.
- Write details such as the location, hours and price of each activity.
- Say what is advisable. Use "You ought to ..." or "It would be a good idea to ..."
- Proofread your article.
- Read your article to a partner.

Self-Assessment

Yes

No

I talk about things to do in the evening.

☐ ☐

I write suggestions.

☐ ☐

I say what is advisable.

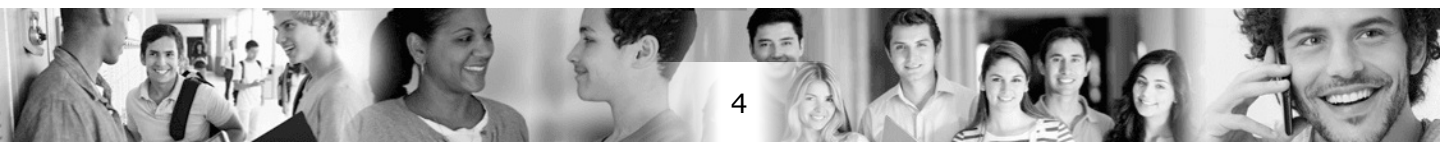

☐ ☐

I read the paragraph to a partner.

☐ ☐

Target Words

- to ask out (verb): to invite a person to an activity with a romantic intention (such as a date)
e.g. I asked Margaret out on a date.
- to cheer up (verb): to feel better in your mood, humor
e.g. I'm sure that would cheer you up!
- to be supervised (expression): to be observed and evaluated by your boss e.g. I don't need to be supervised like that.
- controlling (adjective): wanting to control everything
e.g. My boss is very controlling.
- to be set in your ways (expression): to be inflexible, not willing to compromise or listen e.g. She seems pretty set in her ways.
- it would be a good idea (expression): it is advisable, recommended
e.g. She's your boss, so it would be a good idea to listen to her.

Learning Points

Asking and Giving Advice

There are several ways to ask for help in English. You can use polite and casual language to do this. Let's look at one particular structure for asking for help.

You can use the structure:

Can/Could + you + show/tell + me + Question word

Can you show me how to make lasagna?

Could you show me where the washrooms are?

Could you tell me what is on the dessert menu?

To give advice, you can use the structure:

Let me show/tell + you + question word

Let me show you where it is.

Let me tell you what you should do.

Examples:

- Could you explain to me what the problem is?
- Could you tell me where that club is?

Learning Points

Phrasal Verbs

A phrasal verb is a phrase formed with a verb + preposition.

The combination of the verb and preposition changes the meaning of the verb.

Here are some phrasal verbs related to social activities:

to get along -- to have a good relationship with a person to ask out -- to invite a person to an activity with a romantic intention to go out -- to leave the house, to go to a place or places in the town or city to try out -- to experiment with something new to check out -- to experience something new to come out -- to join other people at a social activity or event

to cheer up -- to feel better (mood or humor)

to dress up -- to put on nice clothes

You conjugate phrasal verbs in the same way you conjugate other verbs.

Affirmative Form	Question Form	Tense
I go out on Saturdays.	Do you go out on Saturdays?	Present tense
I am going out this evening.	Are you going out this evening?	Present Continuous tense
I went out last Saturday.	Did you go out last Saturday?	Simple Past tense
I have gone out every Saturday this month.	Have you gone out every Saturday this month?	Present Perfect tense

Examples:

- I asked Margaret out on a date.
- We went out until about 2:00 a.m.
- Do you have to dress up to go there?

