Let's Start!

This is NOT what I ordered!

Learning Outcome

Use expressions about relationships and feelings in a range of social and work contexts.

Can Do Statements

- I can talk about feelings and reactions.
- I can talk about wishes and imaginary situations.
- I can discuss how to deal with problems.

Ask your partner:

- When do you feel frustrated? Tired? Excited? Why?
- What do you find frustrating? Tiring? Exciting? Why?

Let's Explore!

Vanessa and Peter are at Bistro 88 talking about the menu. Everything sounds so good!

Instructions: Read the text aloud.

- Peter: Can you tell me what is new on the menu?
- Vanessa: Yes, here's a must-try: baked chicken drumsticks in mushroom sauce. It comes with oven-roasted Greek potatoes.
- Peter: That sounds interesting, but I wish it came with rice instead of potatoes.
- Vanessa: We can give you rice.
- Peter: OK, perfect! I'll have that. What are you going to order?
- Vanessa: I usually get the beef and broccoli stir-fry, but I was disappointed with it last time. I'll have to talk to the chef.
- Peter: I wouldn't worry about it, Vanessa. Maybe he just had a bad day.
- Vanessa: Maybe you're right. Today, I think I'll have the lemon baked cod. It's new on the menu. I'm excited to try it.
- Peter: I wish I had a good recipe for stir-fry.
- Vanessa: It's so easy! It's a very popular item.
- Peter: Can you tell me how to make it? My stir-fries are so boring. I'm a bit frustrated, because Tracy is coming over.
- Vanessa: I would practice the recipe first. We could do a stir-fry next weekend.
- Peter: Thanks!

Let's Practice!

Peter talks with Vanessa about imaginary situations.

Instructions: Write the missing words. Use the correct form of the verbs be, come, have, learn, order.

1. I wish it _____ with rice instead of potatoes.
2. I wish I _____ a good recipe for stir-fry.
3. I wish I _____ roast beef instead of turkey.
4. I wish you _____ the manager of the restaurant, not him.
5. I wish I _____ how to cook when I was young.

Let's Practice!

Peter helps Vanessa solve problems at the restaurant.

Instructions: Choose the words from the Word Bank to correctly complete the sentences.

Word Bank

practice / disappointed / over / worry about

Peter: I wouldn't _____ it.

Vanessa: Maybe he just had a bad day.

Peter: I'm a bit stressed, because Tracy is coming _____.

Vanessa: I would _____ the recipe first.

Extension Activity

Create a poster showing people's feelings or reactions.

Instructions: Complete the following steps. Fill in the Self-Assessment.

- Find a large piece of paper the size of a poster.
- Draw a line dividing the paper in half, and then lines dividing it into 4 more sections to make a total of 8 sections (see example below).
- On the left side, write adjectives ending in -ed, like frustrated. Try to find different adjectives than the example.
- On the right side, write adjectives ending in -ing, like exciting.
- Ask 10 people questions starting with: "When do you feel ..." or "What do you find ..."
- Write their answers in the correct category.
- Share your poster with a partner or the class.

Learning Points

Talking about Wishes and Imaginary Situations

You use "I wish..." to talk about things you do not have or do, or you cannot have or do.

The verb wish introduces an idea. After wish, you use a verb in the past tense.

I wish I knew ...

I wish I had ...

I wish you were ...

Structure:

Wish + Simple Past tense

Example	Meaning
I wish it came with rice instead of potatoes.	I want it to come with rice, but it comes with potatoes.
I wish I had a good recipe for stir-fry.	I want to have a good recipe for stir-fry, but I don't.
I wish we were going to Ned's.	I want to go to Ned's, but I'm not going there.
I wish we served lobster!	I would like us to serve lobster, but we don't.

Discussing How to Deal with Problems

One way to discuss how to deal with problems is to say what you would do if you were in someone else's situation. This is a polite way of communicating if you use the modals would or could.

I would ...

I wouldn't ...

You could ...

These are examples of Peter and Vanessa giving suggestions about how to deal with problems.

Examples:

• Vanessa: I was disappointed with the meal. I'll have to talk to the chef.

Peter: I wouldn't worry about it, Vanessa. Maybe he just had a bad day.

• Peter: I'm a bit stressed, because Tracy is coming over.

Vanessa: I would practice the recipe first.
